Oh have you been to A - von-dale And lin-gered in her love-ly vale Where pride and an - cient glo - ry fade Such was the land where he was laid Like tall trees whis-per and low the tale Of A-von-dale's proud ea - gle. Where ea - gle.

Christ was thir - ty pie-ces paid For A-von-dale's proud

Long years that green and lovely glade
Have lost for now our grandest Gael
And cursed the land that has betrayed
Our Avondale's proud eagle
