Musical notation for the song 'Stewball'. The first staff is in G major, 6/4 time, with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The melody is written on a single staff. The lyrics are: 'Oh, Stew-ball was a race horse, _____ And I wish he were mine. _____'. Above the staff, the chord 'G' is written above the first measure, and 'am' is written above the last measure. The second staff starts with a '4' above the first measure, indicating a four-measure rest. The melody continues with the lyrics: 'He ne-ver drank wa-ter. _____ He al-ways drank wine. _____'. Above the staff, the chord 'D7' is written above the first measure, and 'G' is written above the last measure.

His bridle was silver.
His mane, it was gold.
And the worth of his saddle
Has never been told.

Oh, the fair grounds were crowded,
And Stewball was there.
But the betting was heavy,
On the bay and the mare.

And way up yonder,
Ahead of them all
Came a prancing and a dancing,
my noble Stewball.

I bet on the grey mare,
I bet on the bay.
If I'd a-bet on old Stewball,
I'd be a free man today.

Oh, the hoot owl she hollers,
And the turtle dove moans,
I'm a poor boy in trouble.
A long way from home.

Oh, Stewball was a race horse,
And I wish he were mine.
He never drank water.
He always drank wine
