sum-mer's in the mea - dow— Or when the val - ley's hushed and white with snow—

— Oh, Dan - ny boy, oh Dan - ny boy, I love you so!

And when ye come, and all the flow'rs are dying
If I am dead, as dead I well may be Ye'll come and find the place where I am lying
And kneel and say an Ave there for me.
And I shall hear, though soft you tread above me
And all my grave will warmer, sweeter be
For you will bend and tell me that you love me,
And I shall sleep in peace until you come to me.
